

International Law and Human Rights Course Info

About the course

This unique International Law and Human Rights program is run by Masaryk University, AIM Overseas' partner in Brno, Czech Republic.

Over 3 weeks students will attend a total of 36 hours of classes (3 hours every morning, 4 days a week) as well as go on relevant site visits such as:

- the Ombudsman's office
- the Constitutional Court
- the Office for International Protection of Children
- or the UN office in Vienna

Subjects studied in class will cover areas such as:

- Introduction to EU-Law
- The Protection of Human Rights in European Area: Selected Case Law of European Court of Human Rights
- European and International Protection of Children
- EU – An area of Freedom, Security and Justice: The International Private Law

Classes will require some pre-reading and students are expect to complete some assessments as part of the program (see below).

Student background/pre-requisite

Students must be enrolled in a tertiary-level law (or related) program at an Australian university and must have completed at least 2 years of study at time of participation on the program.

Assessment/Certification

Assessments will include a mid-term test and a final essay.

Students will receive either a transcript or certificate from Masaryk University upon successful completion of the course.